CORDIALS 60

Welcome Aboard the James Whitcomb Riley

The New York Central System welcomes you as a passenger on the James Whitcomb Riley with the same cordiality as you would find in the beautiful old Indiana homes so feelingly described by Riley.

The entire train is yours from your own reserved seat to the furthest tip of the observation solarium wherein you may see the beautiful portrait of Riley in oils, a copy of the famous Sargent painting in the Herron Institute at Indianapolis.

You will find the lounge rooms in each of the reclining seat coaches spacious and comfortable. We trust that you will enjoy your meal in the diner. You also are invited to visit the cafe in the observation car.

As the beloved American poet "streamlined" into immortal verse, the life, philosophy, joys and sorrows of the "home folk" of Indiana, so has modern train design "streamlined" for American travel the beautiful James Whitcomb Riley of the New York Central System, newest of de-luxe, reclining seat, all-coach, economy, day trains.

The James Whitcomb Riley is dedicated to de-luxe, low-cost economy coach travel for the "home folk" and commercial travelers of America. As one speeds on this train of his name across the "sweet brown fields of Indiana," amid the sycamores, or crosses the Wabash River of song and story, thoughts of Riley and his masterpieces will come to mind.

WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUNKIN

When the frost is on the punkin and the fodder's in the shock,
And you hear the kyouck and gobble of the siruttin' turkey-cock,
And the clackin' of the guineys, and the cluckin' of the hens,
And the rooster's hallylooyer as he tiptoes on the fence;
O, it's then's the times a feller is a-feelin' at his best,
With the risin' sun to greet him from a night of peaceful rest,
As he leaves the house, bareheaded, and goes out to feed the stock,
When the frost is on the punkin and the foddors in the shock.

THE OLD SWIMMIN'-HOLE

Oh! the old swimmin'-hole! whare the crick so still and deep
Looked like a baby-river that was laying half asleep,
And the gurgle of the worter round the drift jest below
Sounded like the laugh of something we onc't ust to know
Before we could remember anything but the eyes
Of the angels lockin' out as we left Paradise;
But the merry days of youth is beyond our controle,
And it's hard to part ferever with the old swimmin'-hole.

AN OLD SWEETHEART OF MINE

Nay, let me then believe in all the blended false and true—
The semblance of the old love and the substance of the new—
The then of changeless sunny days—the now of shower and shine—
But Love forever smiling—as that old sweetheart of mine.
'Tis a fragrant retrospection,—for the loving thoughts that start
Into being are like perfume from the blossom of the heart;
And to dream the old dreams over is a luxury divine—
When my truant fancies wander with that old sweetheart of mine.

LITTLE ORPHANT ANNIE

Little Orphant Annie's come to our house to stay,
An' wash the cups an' saucers up, an' brush the crumbs away,
An' shoo the chickens off the porch, an' dust the hearth, an' sweep,
An' make the fire, an' bake the bread, an' earn her board-an'-keep;
An' all us other childern, when the supper-things is done,
We set around the kitchen fire an' has the mostest fun
A-list'nin' to the witch-tales 'at Annie tells about,
An' the Gobble-uns 'at gits you ef you don't watch out!
